"THE TWO MERRY TRAMPS."

It is seldom that our theatre goes have an opportunity of witnessing a production of a farce comedy that contains an many pleasant features as contained in Wood & Ward's jolly, jingling satire "Two Merry Tramps." The play is a decided novelty and is presented by an unusually clever company, including Wood and Ward, the Elmore Sisters, Bessie Bennett, the Hasty Brothers, James F. Green, Billy A. Griffin, and other well known features, all of whom introduce specialties of the latest sort, the individual and concerted musical numbers being the leading features of the performance. The company carries all of their own scenery and effects, requiring none of the house scenery whatever. At the Grand next Thursday night. Prices, 15c, 25c, 35c and 50c.
